FRAIL WOMAN

Is the Subject of a Recent Medical Discussion.

That American women are growing more slender and frail is too apparent to any observer for argument. Slenderness and fragility are the words that best describe the typical girl of to-day. From an aesthatic standpoint, perhaps, all this is an improvement on the more buxom and sturdy woman of two generations ago; but from the doctor's standpoint is a rapid de-generation. These delicate creatures are easy to get sick, hard to keep well, and very difficult to cure when sick.

Dr. Hartman has given this subject spe-cial study and thought and done mucr toward remedying the matter. He makes Joe Choynski, who was Connolly's principal handler, saw the fight was over so far as the Canadian was concerned, and world not permit Connolly to subject himself to any more punishment.

The closing round was a wonderful exhibition of nerve on the part of Connolly, Lavigne opened with a left on wind and swung a terrific left on mouth. He followed this up with a stiff right on the ribs and Connolly sent nothing back. Lavigne rushed and Connolly met him wit ha hard right on the ribs. Lavigne hooked his right on the jaw and Connolly went down. Five times in succession Lavigne sent Connolly down with rights on the head and Connolly got gamely to his feet every time in a couple of seconds. The bell changed when he came up the last time, and he staggered to his corner in a very weak condition. When time was called for the beginning of the twelfth round Connolly was in such a weak condition that his seconds would not allow him to continue, and the referee awarded the fight to Lavigne. Lavigne's seconds were Sam Fitzpatrick, Ben Murphy, Jim Ryan and Tom Tracey, while Connolly was handled by Joe Choynski, Jim Kelly, Dick Moore and Bill Smith.

The Pimples

That Bloom in

The Spring At no other season are Pimples and Humors so abundant or so annoying as in the Spring.

An unseasonably warm day, before change of winter clothing, heats the blood, and these Pimples and Humors itch and burn, and their annoyance, the suffering they cause, is known only to those afflicted.

At no time is a blood purifying medicine more effective than just before and during this season.

If your blood is not right (and whose is?) you are liable to be one of these sufferers this Spring.

A course of Hood's Sarsaparilla begun now and faithfully pursued will save you suffering and give you rugged health, so that you can thoroughly enjoy all the pleasures of the coming summer.

Pimples on the Face.

"I have been troubled for three years with pimples on my face and body. I tried several remedies with only temporary relief. I am now taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and it is doing me a wonderful amount of good. My general health is greatly improved, and I feel very thankful for what Hood's Sarsaparilla has already done for me." MISS JANE JABROSKY Burnham, Illinois,

A Clear Complexion. "I have had a bad complexion owing to impure blood. I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and my skin is now clear. Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me much good by purifying my blood." ANNIE D. McCoy, Watsonton, Pennsylvania.

Boils, Blotches, Sores, Pimples. "I have been afflicted for many years with impure blood, which manifested itself in erysipelas, boils, blotches, sores and pimples. I have used many medicines and found Hood's Sarsaparilla to be the best. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all who are affected with impure blood." ISAAC P. MARTIN, Walnut Hill, III.

Annoyed by Eruptions. "I had cruptions caused by impure blood and at times they were very annoving. I was treated by physicians without benefit, and last winter I took a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it helped me. I kept on until I had taken five bottles, and I am no longer annoyed with erup-tions." W. R. HUDSON, Natrona, Pa.

I took the revolver away from him.

"The man he ordered to assist him told me that if I would give the Dutchman back his gun he would not bother me. The Dutchman agreed and I returned him the weapon. He at once began to strike at me and I turned and ran down the track. He fired one shot, but the bullet never struck me. At the second shot I felt a sting in my back and a moment later my legs gave way and I fell. He came up to me and kicked me and swore. He told me to get up, that I was not shot. I told him I was shot and badly hurt. He then turned and went away."

When young Dietz was informed of the death of Lindsay by Jailer Charles Fay he broke down and wept bitterly. The young German has spent a great part of his time, since his incarceration, in tears. He has eaten scarcely nothing and is taking the affair in deepest sorrow. He declares that he did not shoot to hit Lindsay and thought he was only carrying out the commands of the law in attempting to arrest Lindsay.

An inquest will be held to-day or to-morrew, when the killing of Lindsay will be theorously investigated.

Police Judge Gifford Sends Fifteen "Weary Wrangles" Out of Town in a Hurry.

Fifteen big, burly tramps, who had been ity of the Fourth street viaduct, were arraigned in police court yesterday. They ranged from 19 to 28 years of age. Each tramp was lined up before the bar of justice and recounted his sad voyage on the ocean of life. All sorts of yarns were spun, some plausible, but, for the most part, they were pretty flimsy.

"All we wants is a chanct to work, judge," declared the spokesman of the party, a sooty looking fellow with large, unwashed hands.
